

I oppose the weakening of Indiana's Telephone privacy law. I am not at all interested in getting unsolicited phone calls interrupting my evening dinner even from people I do business with. If I need any of their services, I will ask them.

Thank you.